

Located in the heart of Garneau, Eleanor & Laurent offers a French culinary experience to its patrons.

Our front-of-house team is currently looking for full-time personnel (preferably f/t into the fall/winter as well) to assist in providing a Parisian takeaway and patio dining experience. Ideal candidates will be flexible in accommodating our Wednesday through Sunday work schedule, within our 7 am - 9 pm hours of operation. All candidates are responsible for providing their own transportation to and from work. Under the guidance of managerial and supervisory staff, new hires will assist in maintaining and meeting Eleanor & Laurent's qualities and standards relating to but not limited to: customer service, adhering to our standards of cleanliness as well as current health & safety regulations, beverage preparation (including alcohol), wine knowledge is an asset though we do offer training. Additionally, the candidate will continually demonstrate a high level of professionalism, organization, and problem-solving capabilities while providing excellent customer service without exception.

The qualified candidate is a team player with strong time management skills, excellent customer service capabilities, and adheres to health and safety rules and regulations.

Responsibilities:

- Assisting in the careful packaging of our myriad food and beverage options
- Assists in accomplishing organization of inventory & sanitation duties
- Strong customer service background
- Adhering to health and safety rules and regulations

Job Requirements:

- A demonstrated strong customer service & problem-solving background through a reference check
- ProServe up to date
- French baking & cuisine knowledge is an asset
- Experience in high-efficiency & high-volume service environments
- French wine knowledge is an asset

Interested applicants, please email cover letter and resume to bonjour@eleanorandlaurent.com